Blue Chip FCU Announces Merger with Standard Steel Employees Federal Credit Union

Harrisburg, PA: Blue Chip Federal Credit Union, headquartered in Harrisburg, PA, is pleased to announce its merger with Standard Steel Employees Federal Credit Union of Burnham, PA. The merger was approved by both the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) and members of Standard Steel Employees Federal Credit Union (SSEFCU) and was finalized in August. Operational integration is expected to be completed in October.

Pamala Mohn, President and CEO of Blue Chip Federal Credit Union, will lead the combined credit union. Mohn, a veteran of the credit union industry with experience as a Board Member and CEO, will bring her energy, focus and strong leadership ability to the forefront, as the credit union strives daily to exceed member expectations. "Our mission has been and will continue to be helping our members reach their financial goals. We are excited to have the opportunity to offer our new members from SSEFCU all of the services and benefits that they need to make their financial goals a reality," stated Mohn. Jackie Stouffer, current Manager of SSEFCU, will continue to serve as the Branch Manager of Blue Chip Federal Credit Union's new Burnham branch.

With the completion of the merger, Blue Chip FCU will have over 4500 members and assets exceeding $35 Million. Members will have access to two branches; the current headquarters located on Derry Street in Harrisburg, PA and the Burnham branch office located in Burnham, PA.

Blue Chip Federal Credit Union is a not-for-profit financial cooperative headquartered in Harrisburg, PA. Blue Chip FCU is focused on helping members attain financial strength and security. For more information on membership, visit bluechipfcu.org.
